

Frozen Moments

I just wanted to freeze the moment That moment when you looked into my eyes, said nothing but told me how much you loved me in the glance

I just wanted to freeze the moment when our poetry intertwined and became beautiful perspirations of bountiful desires

I wanted to freeze that moment and hold you near forever

But I couldn't

You blew into my insane world and made it seem sane if only for the moment I grasp that moment and allow it to fester it's sweet fragrance into my diary of unspoken love and that way I really won't ever have to let you go

I wish I could freeze the moment when I realized you were writing me into your poetry the same way I wrote you into mine

When our lyrical lips met

When we made love through poetic verses Letting go was impossible so I just want to freeze the moment
